Lab 03: Introduction to Microsoft PowerPoint

The aim of this lab is:

1. To practice on the presentation skills
2. To become familiar with different features available in Microsoft PowerPoint

Lab Exercise:

Using the tutorial shared on LMS, prepare a short PowerPoint presentation (10 mins) on the topic "Holographic memory and its potential uses". Research on internet about the topic for presentation formulation.

This is a group presentation (5 members each) and the presentation must contain the following along with the content on the given topic:

1. Group members' name
2. Content and Slide animations
3. Pictures or WordArt

Deadline is 1545 hrs. I will pick a member from each group one by one who is going to present the related section.
